Re: Choral Evensong sung by the Aeolian Singers

Dear Aethe

I write to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to the Aeolian Singers for singing Evensong for us on Sunday evening. Singing a Service is very different from singing a Concert and yet the choir made the transition superbly well and enabled the gathered congregation to enter into a spirit of prayer and praise through the offering of your music. Thank you very much.

Particular highlights for me were the Viadana's Exsultate justi and the Psalm, but this is splitting hairs. I hope that all who took part enjoyed singing Evensong and were made welcome.

Perhaps you would consider singing Evensong for us again? We would very much like to welcome you back. If you would like to sing again perhaps you can be in touch with Linden Innes-Hopkins and propose some possible dates.

Thank you once again from all in the Parish of Boxmoor for a splendid Evensong.

Every Blessing,

The Reverend Michael Macey
