Carols for Choir and Audience

Aeolian Singers

Saturday 17th December 2016 at 7:30pm –

St John's Church, Station Road, Boxmoor, Hemel Hempstead HP1 1JY

Aeolian Singers warmly invite you to join them for their popular annual celebration of Christmas. The concert of carols and seasonal songs will take place in the sparkling setting of the Christmas Tree Festival at St John's Church in Boxmoor.

The programme will include Brother Heinrich's Christmas, a fable set to music by John Rutter. We are very pleased to be joined by talented young musicians from St Albans School on oboe and bassoon in the performance of this delightful work.

Aeolian Singers will also sing Walking in the Air by Howard Blake, Paul McCartney's Wonderful Christmas Time and carols old and new. The audience will be invited to join in with singing the traditional Christmas favourites.

All seating is unreserved. Ticket price includes a programme.

Adult ticket : £13 includes one free ticket for a child under 16.

Additional tickets for under 16s cost £3.
